7.1-3-18-1. Carrier's alcoholic permit - Issuance authorized. The commission may issue a carrier's alcoholic permit to a person who is a carrier upon showing of the and responsibility of the carrier and the propriety of issuing the permit. The commission may issue a carrier's alcoholic permit without publication of notice and investigation by a local board. [IC 7.1-3-18-1, as added by Acts 1973, P.L. 55 & 1.]

7.1-3-18-2. Scope of carrier's alcoholic permit. A carrier shall be required to apply for, and be applicable to, the movement, conveyance, importation, and transportation of alcohol and alcoholic beverages on a public highway in this state. A carrier's alcoholic permit shall not be required when the conveyance, movement, importation, or transportation is conducted by means of cars or trains operated by a railroad of any type over fixed rails. [IC 7.1-3-18-2, as added by Acts 1973, P.L. 55 & 1.]

7.1-3-18-3. Highway transportation - Carrier's permit required. A carrier shall be required to apply for, and obtain a carrier's alcoholic permit before he may haul, convey, transport, or import alcoholic beverages on a public highway of this state or a crossing boundary of it. [IC 7.1-3-17-3, as added by Acts 1973, P.L. 66 & 1.]

7.1.2-18-4. Beer for consumption out of state - Carrier's permit not required. A carrier who transports beer manufactured in Indiana for consumption outside this state shall not be required to obtain a carrier's alcoholic permit if the beer has been manufactured under a brewer's permit and if in the judgment of the commission, through safeguards provided by the cooperation of the brewer, the issuance of a permit to the carrier is not necessary to protect the interests of the State of Indiana. [IC 7.1-3-18-4, as added by Acts 1973, P.L. 55 & 1.]

7.1-3-18-5. Prerequisite to issuance of carrier's alcoholic permit - Vehicle description. A carrier's alcoholic permit shall not be operative as to a vehicle owned or operated by the carrier and shall not authorize the transportation or conveyance of alcoholic beverages in it unless a description of the vehicle is first filed with the commission. The description of the vehicle shall include the engine number, date of manufacture, approximate weight, motor vehicle number, all license plate numbers, capacity, and any other information that the commission may require. The filing of the required information shall include that vehicle in the coverage of the permit. The permittee may alter or add to the number of vehicles included under the permit from time to time. [IC 7.1-3-18-5, as added by Acts 1973, P.L. 55 & 1.]
